Be a Friend to Yourself and Others... Playing, Caring, and Learning Together

Jim Mayer is leading a movement to inspire a generation of children who will not only embrace individuality and acceptance, but celebrate it. Renowned as the long-time bass player for Jimmy Buffett's Coral Reefer Band and an award winning children's musician and performer, Jim's live IM4U performances are in demand all over the world.

With the captivating theme of "Be a Friend to Yourself and Others," IM4U Learning assemblies emphasize the importance of responsibility, respect, empathy, and collective support through a delightful blend of upbeat songs that encourage movement and the spirit of friendship. IM4U Learning inspires young hearts and minds, leaving a lasting impact on their personal growth and development.
